To Whom It May Concern:

On _____, 2006, _____ will be participating Muslim Inter-Scholastic Tournament (MIST) 2006! This is a statewide and national academic event that aims to bring high school students together from around the nation to develop leadership, promote communication, and inspire creativity in order to develop a strong identity. Students will participate in a wide range of knowledge, arts, and skills, developing workshops and competitive events, and bring back awards for their achievements to their high schools! This tournament is open to all high school students regardless of their religion and gender.

Please help _____ in his/her development and motivation into an individual who is open-minded and educated about current social issues and events of the world by giving him/her the opportunity represent _____ High School. We are all working for the development of these students into caring, productive, and strong young adults. If you have any questions, feel free to contact me, the DC MIST Regional Director. Visit www.dcmist.com for details about this year's events. Thank you for your time and cooperation.

Sincerely,

Rasha El-Haggan
